NATIONAL APPLE SHOW AT SPOKANE

OREGON APPLES WILL BE THERE
—$100 FOR BEST BUSHEL OF WHEAT.

Portland, Sept. 28.—"Oregon apples will be well represented at the second National Apple show at Spokane, November 15-20," said Ren, H. Rice, manager of the apple show, who was in Portland during the past week. "While the crop is generally much smaller than last year, the quality is of the very best and growers in all parts of the state are showing the keenest interest in the various contests. While the first apple show was an unexpected success, we have assurance that the second exposition will be even more so, as the growers want a chance to exhibit their choicest apples in comparison with fruit from other states and the prize list gives an opportunity for every apple raiser to compete. The contests include carloads, ten boxes, five boxes, single boxes, barrels, jars and plates with cash premiums ranging from $1000 sweepstakes in the carload classes down to $3 for a single pair of five apples. All the railroads have united in giving a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip to Spokane during the show week and also allow visitors to go by one day and return via another.

"The National Apple Show dates give growers an opportunity to exhibit at local county fairs and apple shows such as those at Albany and Hood River and then have plenty of time to ship to Spokane and win additional honors and premiums. "I have been in many of the fruit growing districts of Washington and Oregon and in nearly all sections this report is the same—a small crop of fine quality."

FLORA NOTES.

Same Old Story Of Peddler Gouge

People of North End Bilked As Usual By Travelling Salesmen.

Many of the people of the Hunsan Ferry and Paradise country are some what up in arms against a certain Spokane grocery house, which carries on a peddling grocery business—that is it turns out to be a Spokane house, but from the copy of the order sheet a person cannot tell where the house was located, says the Asotin County Sentinel. Several families purchased as high as fifty and fifty dollars worth of the stuff, and the prices that were charged were higher clear through the list, than good goods could have been purchased for from the merchants of Asotin, or from any of the stores in the county. This is a fact, because some of the fellows have gone into the Asotin stores this week and priced the list straight through at regular retail prices, and they found that they had been held up on practically every item. One gentleman's wife had

REPORTED CHANGE TRAIN TIME CARD

RUMORED OLD SCHEDULE WILL BE RESUMED ON BRANCH OCTOBER 1.

Ever since the change of time of the branch trains by which the morning train does not reach the upper valley until 6 o'clock and after, there has been continual protest by the patrons of the road. That the officials have heard the complaints and will remedy the cause is the latest report, and if it proves true, it will be welcome news, indeed, to all who have occasion to travel on the train. The report is thus given in Sunday's Star:

"It is stated in railroad circles that the change will be another change in the running of trains on the Wallowa branch and that the change will be back to about the former schedule when the train left La Grande at 3:15 in the morning instead of 12:45, as at present. The return trip will also be arranged so as to bring the arrival of the train from Joseph at about 3:30 in the afternoon. The Sunday train service is not to be discontinued. According to the reports the change back to the old time is in deference to the expression of the patrons of the road along the Wallowa branch. It is said that the change will take place on the first of the coming month."

Farmers Day At A-Y-P Exposition

Seattle, Sep. 28.—States, counties, and cities; barbers, plumbers, and blacksmiths; every profession, creed and class have had their day at the Exposition and now the farmers have sung the praises and exploited the agricultural interests of the great Northwest.

The fair authorities, appreciating their relation to the development of the Northwest, gave the farmers three days for their celebration and by liberal appropriation arranged for the most spectacular and unique entertainment ever seen anywhere. "Harvest Home Festival" was ushered in September 24 by a grand agricultural parade, in which all competitors for the numerous prizes carried their carrot or turnip or stock of corn on a stick and passed the judge in review.

Seven mammoth steers and oxen have been prepared for a big barbecue the second day. Ten thousand juicy hot roast sandwiches were distributed to hungry visitors, after the steers were taken from the spits, which by the way was in the open where all could watch the chefs at their work. At night an old fashioned hoe-down in the Washington State building, which was turned into a ball room for the occasion, was open to all. The only condition was that every man must wear overalls and every woman a gingham or calico dress.

On Sunday, the Harvest Home Festival closed with a jubilee meeting in the amphitheatre when a dozen noted evangelists and singers were given opportunity to say that the religious interests were given a day at the big Seattle Exposition.

Another feature will be Fish Day, Monday. On that day fish will be served free to all visitors at the Exposition, in commemoration of the close of a successful run of salmon up the Northwest rivers.

Tuesday at the Exposition will be Lynden Day and Earbers Day. Wednesday will be the day at the fair of Ryeeroff, Port Angeles, the Washington Newsboys, and the Washington Creamery operators.

Phi Delta Theta will celebrate at the Exposition Thursday with appropriate exercises in the Auditorium. This will also be the day of the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

Local Praise For Evangelist Pratt

S. Harris' Praise of His Success in Dakota—Campaign Begins October 24.

Editor: Dr. Pratt's work is highly spoken of wherever he has been. Personally I know his work in North Dakota where I labored 6 1/2 years and can say that he is one of the most beloved evangelists that ever came to the state.

S. HARRIS.
An Appreciation.
From the Ventura Free Press, Ventura, Cal.

Sometime before these meetings began an estimation of Mr. Pratt from a personal acquaintance was printed in the Free Press but now that he has been constantly before Ventura people for three weeks, opinion is practically unanimous regarding him and his work. A few single words characterize him best, mature, unaffected, scholarly, direct, earnest, Godly and successful. He has skillfully maintained the argument and appeal in his work and has refused to resort to any tricks to make people publicly profess what they do not inwardly believe. Frank honesty has characterized all his work. He has never striven a point to make the results look larger than they really are. His exposition is the basis of all his teaching and preaching and he often repeats the statement that he has no oratorical ambitions but wishes to persuade men to hear, believe and obey God's message in the Bible. Through his strong presentations the Bible has become a living volume, to many to whom it has been a closed book. As a friend he has won his way into the regard of many of our people, who will count his acquaintance a privilege. Especially will he be esteemed by those who through his ministry have entered a Christian life and profession.

SUPREME COURT CASES.

The Observer states that news has reached La Grande that three cases of interest to Union and Wallowa counties have been set for hearing before the supreme court on October 6 and 7. The cases are ex-Sheriff Blahley of Wallowa county vs. Peter O'Sullivan, involving the old question of the location of personal property for assessment, and the State vs. McDonald and the Earnes vs. Long, two escheat cases appealed from Union county.

The offering of the Eckhardt company for the first night of their engagement at the Opera House in this city, commencing Friday night Oct. 1st will be the beautiful and refreshing comedy The Grass Widow.

CRAIG SELLS HERD REGISTERED COWS

MCDONALD OF WALLOWA AND VAUGHAN OF IMNAHA BUY FAMOUS HEREFORDS.

George S. Craig, one of the leading thoroughbred cattle breeders in this section, has sold his herd and retired from the business. He disposed of 67 head to John McDonald of Wallowa and 35 head to H. N. Vaughan of Imnaha. The lot bought by Mr. McDonald included the famous bull, Bright Promise, conceded by judges of cattle to be one of the most perfect animals in the state.

The cattle are all registered Herefords, and all female stock except Bright Promise and one bull calf. The price paid is not made public but the total deal looks up over $80 000.

Mr. Craig took great pride in his herd of whitefaces and spared no pains or expense to get the best, but he has recently gone into the sheep business in partnership with another cattleman, C. G. Holmes, and decided to dispose of his cattle.

His son, W. F. Craig, who resides on the old home ranch just south east of this city, will also go into the sheep business, and has acted with a purchase of 350 ewes of Falconer Bros.

Traded Last of Cattle.
Graves Bros. have traded the last of their cattle, 120 head of choice range cows, to Sheherd Morgan of Imnaha, for ewes.
